

JAMES HARE

SINCE 1865

Tapes & Trims

Tapes & Trims

Since 1865, the Hare family has been designing, manufacturing, and distributing elegant fabrics using only the finest materials and techniques.

Now run by the fifth generation, the company still abides by its founder's principles of offering only the best in British design, quality and service.

The new collection of tapes, trims, fringes, and drops will bring interest and definition to an interior space. The colours coordinate flawlessly with the James Hare fabric range and are the perfect finishing touch.

We hope you are inspired.
